1. Students EU/EEA Nationals

You will not require a visa for studies to enter Greece if you possess a valid passport from an EU Member State, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway or Switzerland. However, please check your passport is valid¹ and if necessary, renew it as early as possible, and before leaving for Greece.

2. Students, non EU/EEA Nationals

2.a Short term and long term Mobility of Non EU/EEA Students

Moving between EU countries during my short-term visit – less than three months

When you stay in an EU country for a long stay for studies, for more than three months, you will generally be issued with a national long-stay visa and/or a residence permit. If your long-stay visa or permit has been issued by a Schengen area country, you can travel to another Schengen area country for three months per six-month period without any additional visa.

Moving between EU countries during my long-term stay – more than three months

To continue your studies from one Schengen area country to Greece for more than three months, you will need a Greek Residence Permit. If you wish to continue your studies to Greece, you may enter with your valid passport and residence permit and submit an application for a residence permit to your closest “One-Stop Service” Foreigners and Immigration Department of the Decentralized Administration of the Ministry of Interior & Administrative Reconstruction (Annex V). After the submission of the application, you will receive a certificate (when you submit all necessary documentation / see also point 2c respectively) and you can check at any time the application status.

The supporting documents required (apart from the general requirements of national immigration law) are the following:

- A fully completed and signed copy of the harmonized application form for a uniform visa (available at the website of the Consular Authority), accompanied by a recent colour photograph of the applicant meeting the relevant standards set by ICAO (Annex IV).
- A passport or other travel document, recognized by Greece, as indicated in the «Table of travel documents which permit crossing of the external borders and may have a visa attached», with a period of validity which must exceed by three months the last validity date of the visa, having at least two blank pages and issued within the previous ten years (Article 12, paragraph 1, of the Visa Code).
- Travel insurance with a period of validity equal to, at least, the visa issued, covering the costs which might arise in case of repatriation for medical reasons, urgent medical attention and/or emergency hospital treatment.
- A true copy of the residence permit for studies, of which he/she is a holder in another Member State of the European Union
- A confirmation issued by an education establishment of another Member State of the European Union on the curriculum the student has attended in it, as well as on the additional or related nature of this curriculum with the program he/she intends to attend in Greece and its completion time.
- A confirmation issued by the respective program promoter on the participation of the student in a Community or bilateral exchange program or proof from the competent authorities of a Member State of the European Union that he/she has been admitted to it as a student for at least two years or a certificate issued by the education establishment of the other European Union Member State, certifying the compulsory attendance of part of this curriculum in Greece

- a. its validity shall extend at least three months after the intended date of departure from the territory of the Member States or, in the case of several visits, after the last intended date of departure from the territory of the Member States. However, in a justified case of emergency, this obligation may be waived;
- b. it shall contain at least two blank pages;
- c. it shall have been issued within the previous 10 years.

- Evidence proving that he/she has adequate income to meet study and subsistence costs, the amount of which is at least equal to four hundred (400) euros a month, as defined by the provisions of the Joint Ministerial Decree No. 41712/2014 (Government Gazette No. 2285, issue B’).

2b. Short courses in Greek Universities, not exceeding three months.

-List of third countries whose nationals are exempt from visa requirements when crossing the external borders of Member States of Regulation \(EC\) No. 539/2001.

-List of third countries whose nationals must have a visa when crossing the external borders of Member States.

Third country nationals wishing to enter Schengen area for a period less than three months, belonging to list of third countries whose nationals must have a visa when crossing the external borders of the Schengen MS, shall visit their competent Consular Authority² or the External Service Provider (ESP) and apply for a Schengen Visa (type C). The Visa is free of charge for the following categories:

- school pupils, students, postgraduate students and accompanying teachers who undertake stays for the purpose of study or educational training;

-researchers from third countries travelling for the purpose of carrying out scientific research as defined in Recommendation No 2005/761/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 28 September 2005 to facilitate the issue by the Member States of uniform short-stay visas for researchers from third countries travelling within the Community for the purpose of carrying out scientific research.

Third country nationals wishing to enter Schengen area for a period less than three months, belonging to list of third countries whose nationals are exempted from visa requirements, may enter to the Schengen area without any other formality for the respective period.

2c. Admission for studies in Greek Universities or to participate in exchange programs, under bilateral agreements or in projects funded by the European Union i.e “ERASMUS + (placement)” program for long-term stay – more than three months.

If your passport is from a country outside the EU/EEA, then you will need to apply for a Student Visa (national visa type D³) and after your admission to Greece for a Residence Permit.

“One-Stop Service” Aliens and Immigration Department of the Decentralized Administration of the Ministry of Interior & Administrative Reconstruction (RESIDENCE PERMIT).

To issue a residence permit, a substantial and necessary requirement is the possession, by all persons concerned, of a specific national visa. This requirement applies regardless of whether the country issuing the travel document of the person concerned belongs to those of List of third countries whose nationals must have a visa when crossing the external borders of Member States or List of third countries whose nationals are exempt from visa requirements when crossing the external borders of Member States of Regulation \(EC\) No. 539/2001

National visas does not automatically confer further rights (e.g. to study), but should be accompanied by a relevant certificate proving the lodging of an application (with all the necessary documentation) to issue a residence permit. A residence permit is the legal document providing the necessary certification from the

² Consular territorial competence:

-An application shall be examined and decided on by the consulate of the competent Member State in whose jurisdiction the applicant legally resides.

-A consulate of the competent Member State shall examine and decide on an application lodged by a third-country national legally present but not residing in its jurisdiction, if the applicant has provided justification for lodging the application at that consulate.

Competence to issue visas to third-country nationals legally present within the territory of a Member State: Third-country nationals who are legally present in the territory of a Member State and who are required to hold a visa to enter the territory of one or more other Member States shall apply for a visa at the consulate of the Member State that is competent in accordance with Article 5(1) or (2).

³ A long - term visa 39 (National visa - D Type Visa) is an authorization issued by the competent Greek authorities for the entry and stay of third - country nationals in the Greek territory for a period exceeding 90 days and up to 365 days, according to the respective national regulations or European Union law on the residence status of third - country nationals.

competent Greek authorities and based on which the third - country national is allowed to stay legally in the Greek territory and have all rights provided for in the national immigration legislation. Any third - country national holding a long - term visa issued by a Member State and having a period of validity of up to one year, may travel to other Member States for 90 days, within any period of 180 days, under the same terms applying to holders of residence permits.

Studies in Greek universities (undergraduate, master and doctoral level⁴)

Type of Visa: National-D (Category “D.1.1 Studies”)

Third country nationals who have been admitted to a higher education establishment in Greece⁵, in order to attend a full-time curriculum in Greece, may be provided, upon physical presence at the Greek Consular Authority and a corresponding interview, a national visa valid for up to 365 days and then issue a residence permit valid until the end of their studies.

The supporting documents required are the following:

- A certificate proving registration and payment of fees at the respective education establishment, as appropriate, or a certificate that he/she has been accepted for registration
